2018 Guildry of Stirling Dean's Dinner

The Guildry of Stirling held its annual Deans Dinner on Friday 9th February in the Stirling Court Hotel where special Guests Stephen Kerr MP and crime writer Craig Robertson were the after dinner speakers.

Craig told many stories of his life as a Sunday newspaper journalist and how he ended up becoming one of Scotland's top crime writers. He followed up his talk by toasting the Guildry of Stirling. Stephen Kerr MP gave an interesting insight to his life before and after becoming an MP and his role in Westminster. Stephen completed his talk by toasting the City of Stirling.

Mr. Alan Simpson, Esq, OBE Lord Lieutenant for Stirling and Falkirk, Mr Craig Robertson, Mr Alasdair L. Gammack Dean of the Guildry of Stirling, Councillor Christine Simpson Provost of the City of Stirling, Stephen Kerr MP and Revd. Alan Miller Chaplain to the Guildry of Stirling.
